

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

General Practitioner Liaison Officer – Health Systems Improvement & Caboolture Hospital

Brisbane North PHN is part of the Australian Government's reform of health care. Brisbane North PHN increases access to health services in the community through innovation and improved coordination amongst service providers.

We currently have an exciting opportunity for a General Practitioner Liaison Officer (GPLO) to come and join a dynamic team of GPs working with the Metro North Hospital and Health Service (MNHHS).

Our GPLOs undertake a range of activities designed to assist with improvements in the systems and services that underpin patient outcomes across the care continuum.

Working with the support of the hospital executive and specialists, this role will provide primary care advice and liaison one day per week at Caboolture Hospital and health systems improvement work one day per week based with the Health Care Excellence and Innovation team, at the Herston campus HHS offices. It would be preferable for the days to include Wednesday and Tuesday or Thursday.

Specifically this GPLO role will provide a primary care perspective to:

- Assist with the identification of service gaps at the interface between hospital and primary services.
- Support the development of care pathways and new models of shared care using problem-solving and stakeholder engagement skills
- Develop and contribute to the delivery of GP education events.
- Develop strategies to improve communication between the MNHHS and primary care providers to achieve improved health outcomes for patients receiving public health services.

Our ideal candidate would be a team player with great engagement skills who loves to work with others to achieve goals that support excellent patient care. They should be resilient and able to work with varied stakeholders with preferably at least 5 years general practice experience.

If you are a practising GP with an interest in working casual hours of two days per week, we would love to hear from you.

We offer excellent remuneration ($167.00 per hour plus 9.5% superannuation).

The position will be based one day per week at Caboolture Hospital and one day at Metro North HHS Herston.

Please call James Collins (Lead GPLO) M: 0466 982 465 for further information.
