

HEPATITIS C

DECISION-MAKING RESOURCES

SUPPORT CLEARER, FASTER HEPATITIS C CARE

New and free resources are now available to simplify decision-making about hepatitis C and to support conversations regarding treatment. The new resources include a clinically reviewed mouse mat offering a clear, step-by-step guide to assessing, testing and treating hepatitis C. In addition, there is a complementary A3 poster designed to help patients understand their treatment journey and feel confident taking the next steps. These tools support shared decision-making and are ideal for use in general practices, AOD services, NSPs, and other care settings.
