

Are you a maternity care or community health clinician caring for women and families in the perinatal period (from pregnancy to one year after birth)?

PIPE-MC is a simulation based, interprofessional education program co-designed to strengthen the capacity of health professionals to care for women and their families with perinatal mental health concerns.

Scan the QR code to find out more about PIPE-MC
www.pipemc.teeach.org.au

To express your interest in a workshop email:
PIPE-MC@westernsydney.edu.au with your

- Name
- Discipline / professional background
- Email address & contact number

One day workshop
October 15th 2025
Southern Cross University
Gold Coast University Campus
Gold Coast Airport
Terminal Drive
Bilinga
Building C
Rooms C514-5 and C516-7

Please provide your own lunch, tea and coffee provided

FREE