

PERSISTENT (CHRONIC) PAIN

Working with people from refugee backgrounds

This free clinical education event for primary health care professionals aims to provide a forum to create better outcomes for patients living with persistent pain.

Guest Speakers:

- Dr Nicholas Aitcheson – Rehabilitation and Pain Medicine Specialist, Director Metro South Health Pain Rehabilitation Centre
- Dr Nga Tran – Consultant Psychiatrist, Mater Refugee Complex Care Clinic Psychiatry Service
- Sanam Ahmadzada – Member of the Mater Refugee Health Advisory Group (G11)

Facilitators:

- Dr Rebecca Farley – General Practitioner, Mater Refugee Complex Care Clinic and BNPHN
- Dr Rachel Claydon – GP Fellow Refugee Health Network of Qld (RHNQ) & GP

There will also be a panel with speakers from Mater Refugee Health, QPASTT and Dr Deborah Hillman White (GP at Medeco Medical Centre Inala).

.....

Date: Tuesday 18th June, 2024
Venue: Tzu Chi Community Centre, 60 Rosebank Square, Salisbury Qld 4107 or online: via ZOOM (Register below for the link)
Time: 5.30pm – Dinner provided
6pm to 8pm (Education event)
Parking: Free - Onsite or street
Registration: To attend in person Register here Face to face meeting, or
To attend online Register here Online meeting
RSVP: By Tuesday June 11, 2024

.....

More information about this event please email alina.ielenko@mater.org.au

*If after registering, you are unable to attend this event, please notify the organiser at your earliest convenience.
This event is also supported by:*