Primary Care Management – Incentives and Accreditation

Wednesday 7 August and 11 September 2024

Primary Care Management: Incentives and Accreditation is an online opportunity for practice staff to engage in peer networking and the sharing of valuable insights into critical areas of practice management.

Two lunch and learn sessions will be facilitated by Riwka Hagen, Principal Consultant and Certified Leadership Coach, Medical Business Services who will share her knowledge gained over 20 years of experience in the health sector.

Session 1: QI – PIP and Indigenous Health Incentives

Date: Wednesday 7 August 2024

Time: 12.00 – 1.00 pm

Learn more about:

- the Quality Improvement Practice Incentive Program (QI-PIP)
- indigenous health incentives.

Brisbane North PHN is fully funding scholarships for twelve practice managers in the region to participate in this training. To secure a place, a $100 deposit is required, which will be fully reimbursed upon course completion. Given the limited number of scholarships available, interested participants are encouraged to register their interest promptly.

Spaces are limited and in high demand. Complete your Expression of Interest (EOI) now.

Session 2: Accreditation

Date: Wednesday 11 September 2024

Time: 12.00 – 1.00 pm

Learn more about:

- structure of the Standards
- demonstrating compliance
- practice governance, planning, risk management, contingencies and safety (core module)
- clinical quality improvement and feedback (QI module)
- vaccine potency (GP module).
