

Moreton Bay's 50 most influential people 2022

From politicians, community activists, environmental advocates, sporting heroes and business owners; there are many people who go above and beyond to make the Moreton Bay a great place to live and work.

45. Libby Dunstan, CEO, Brisbane North PHN

Ms Dunstan has more than 20 years' experience and expertise in senior health leadership roles and expertise in managing the strategic, operational and business operations of a number of groups in the not-for-profit sector. She is an expert in stakeholder engagement and management, project management, policy development and analysis, partnership development and supporting system reforms and health system improvement. As CEO of Brisbane North PHN, she and her team support medicos and communities across Brisbane's northern suburbs, Moreton Bay Regional Council and parts of Somerset Regional Council areas.
